The call for service is based on four levels

- Choice
- Communion
- Training
- Evangelism

- Choice:

God knows who has certain qualifications for a service, God invites.

- Communion:

Is a chance for learning in a communion.

- Training:

The disciples spent a whole year in communion and in preparing for service.

- Evangelism

After being prepared in training for service (witnessing the crucifixion, living the resurrection and the Pentecost) Jesus sent the disciples saying “go to the whole nations and baptize them”

The Choice

“Afterwards he went up into hills and summoned certain ones he chose, inviting them to come and join him there; and they did. Then Jesus selected twelve of them to be his regular companions and to go out to preach and cast out demons.”

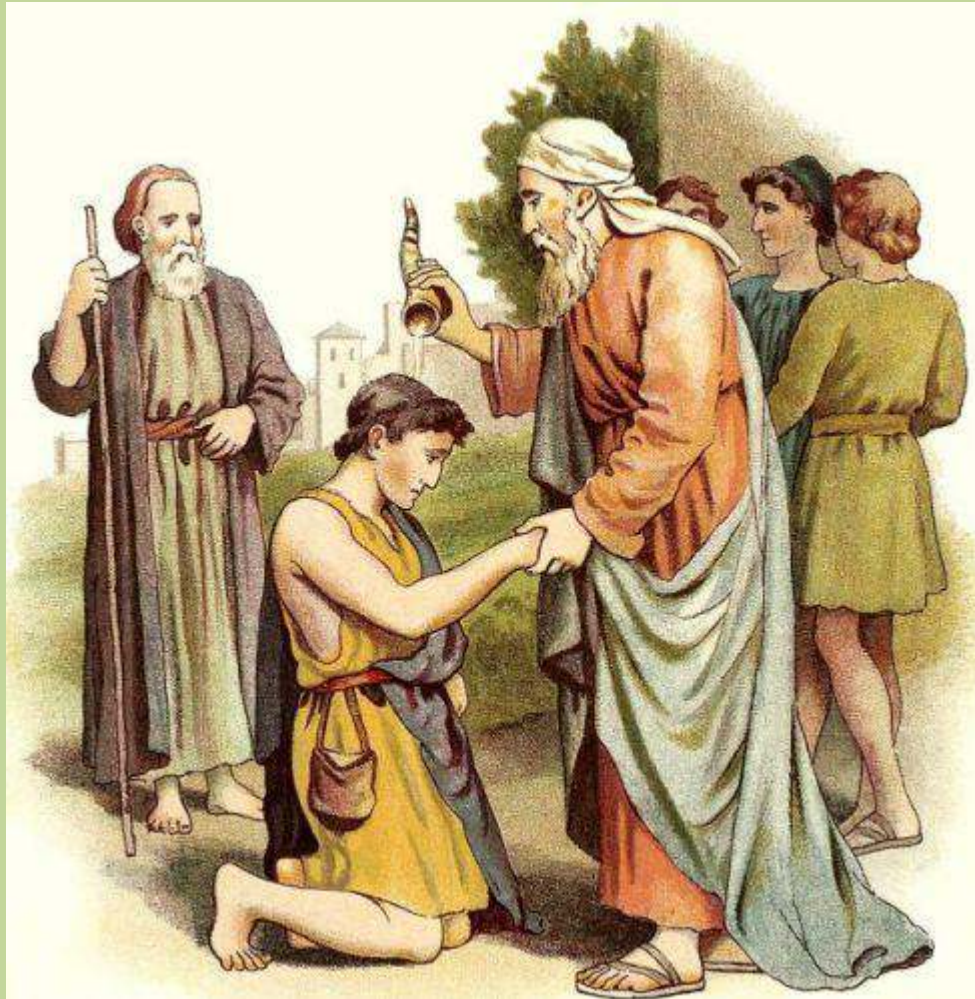

(Mark3:13&14)

“But the Lord said to Samuel, do not consider his appearance or height, for I have rejected him. “
( 1 Samuel 16:7)

The Communion

The disciples' communion with Jesus was a chance to learn from him.

They learned when the crowd gathered around him.

They watched Jesus when he was praying with tears, laughing with the crowd and being kind with children.

The Communion

The disciples learned from their master through the sermons. Like the sermon on the mountain and through their individual relation with Jesus.

He told them a lot of things that pertain to the kingdom of God.

The practical Training

(Mark 6: 7-13)

(Mat 10: 9-14)

Jesus started to send the disciples two by two and he established the fundamental principles for the spiritual and the earthly work:

1. The spirit of oneness
2. The spirit of faithfulness
3. The spirit of simplicity
4. The spirit of peace
5. The spirit of firmness

The Evangelism

“Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the father and the son and the Holy Spirit. Teaching them all the things that I commanded you.”

Matthew 28:19
